

Home Based Tele-Exercise for People with Chronic Neurological Impairments

Currently Recruiting Participants

For more information, please contact:

Amy Bialek, MSPT

*Advanced Clinician & Research
Study Coordinator
Burke Neurological Institute*

amb3003@med.cornell.edu
(914) 597-2347

All equipment will be provided.

- Heart rate monitor
- Blood pressure monitor
- Wrist weights

The seated exercise study will include:

- Adaptive Boxing
- Adaptive Power Posture
- Adaptive High-Intensity Interval Training (HIIT)

Who can participate?

- 18-75 years of age
- Diagnosis of a chronic neurological impairment (at least 6 months post injury)
- Ability to commit to 12-week program (3 times a week)
- Medically stable, no contraindications to exercise
- Access to high speed internet on a device with webcam
- Currently exercising two (2) days or less per week
- Can follow instructions in English

